5. Correspondence in and out

Emails been forwarded on to all YAC members

6. Financial Report

YAC and national youth week has to exist on $3,000 at this present time, compared to $10,000 that we normally have. OFY are having a meeting this week to work out what they will be funding. Financially it isn't looking positive. Mark envisages council will support YAC as well as doing fundraising to support YAC and keep it running if funding from OFY falls through.

7. Business Arising from the last meeting

7.1 Volunteer forms and copies of certificates

Lucretia has requested that all YAC members hand up copies of existing first aid certificates and police check certificates to her.

7.2 Youth Centre

Victor Harbor- Centre proposal was endorsed by Victor Harbor. An opportunity to lease existing building is being discussed.

Goolwa- YAC members on the steering committee have been unable to make contact with others members of the committee. Lucretia will follow it up.

7.3 Office For Youth Update

OFY planning week changes are happening. The focus for OFY is on disadvantage youth.

7.4 Presentation to council

Emma and Chris have been working on the power point that will be presented at the Victor Harbor Council meeting held on Monday 21st September at 5:30pm.

7.5 YES Forum

Structure is in place. Schools have been contacted and information and registration packs being sent out next week to schools, guest speakers, panel members and service providers.

7.6 Dukes Awards

This will depend on funding. Lucretia will follow this up with Rob.

7.7 Youth Art Expo

The youth art expo name will be 'Colour Me Senseless'. Anja will be designing the poster for the event.

7.8 Child Safe Environment Training

The Child Safe Environment Training day will be held on Friday 18th September 2009 at the Victor Harbor council between approximately 9am and 2pm. Lucretia will inform YAC's if time changes.

The cost of the training will be covered out of the budget. The training will be tailored to suit the few YAC members under 18 year olds.

7.9 SYTE

Young theatre classes will begin on Monday 31st August 2009 for children aged 5-12 years of age. The first three sessions of attendance will be free of charge.
